

The book cover features a dark, textured background with a repeating wavy line pattern. A vertical strip on the right side shows a detailed illustration of a forest scene, including a large tree trunk and various foliage. The title is printed in a bold, sans-serif font across the middle of the cover.

CLASS PROPHECY

Well, it's just a few minutes past twelve o'clock, January 1, 1969. Yes, a new year has begun! How nice it is to think back over all the years I have been traveling and all the people I have met. But as I think back I begin to wonder what has happened to all the friends and classmates I went to school with. To find out I will pay a visit to my sister KAYE SMITH, now married to Ray Record with five little Records of her own. She and Ray make their home in Michigantown. I arrived in Michigantown the next day about 1:30 P.M. Kaye and Ray met me at the airport. They drove me to their home. The next day I did nothing but question Kaye, and she told me that most of the kids were still around Michigantown although a few had left. That evening we sat down to watch television. The most delightful program, Private Secretary, came on. The surprise was in the casting. Our own SHIRLEY AVERY playing the part of the secretary. Just before the show was over the television went on the blink. Kaye hurried to the phone and called the repairman. My first impression as he walked in the door was of just a good looking middle aged man. But then I had to laugh. It was RICHARD COHEE. We began talking, and he told me he wasn't married yet but was waiting for VIRGINIA LEE CANTER to set the date. He had waited only ten years already, he said. Ginny was now an elementary teacher right here in Michigantown. I decided the next morning to go see Ginny. I walked over to the school. It was still the same old one we had in '54. I found Ginny talking to a rather elderly lady. It turned out to be MRS. MARAM SELLINGER, now supervisor of the English Depts. of all schools. School let out at 11:00 that day so Ginny and I went out for a bite to eat. Uptown she took me to a very quaint Tea shop. The inside was done beautifully. The waiter told me that CARL HARRIS the owner had done it all himself. I never thought this of Carl. Ginny then decided to take me out and show me the countryside. First we stopped at a small filling station at the edge of town. Yes, just as I thought! GORDON MAISH came out to see what we needed. We then left for Beard. I was really surprised to see how this place had grown. They told me REX CROMB had built this town. It seems he had grown tired of small towns so he built a city of his own. I wanted to see Rex, and when behind me I heard someone say, "Hi vere", I knew I'd get to see him. We then left Beard and headed around to Avery. I remembered this town well but it sure had changed! Ginny asked me if I would like to meet the Mayor. Naturally I considered this an honor. While waiting to get into the mayor's office, a slim attractive girl walked through the office checking a list of figures. It was Nancy Fearnow. It used to be NANCY WILSON. We finally got in to see the mayor. And sitting there with his feet on the desk and eating an ice cream bar was MAX SHEETS. Was this a surprise. Max told me our old classmate, JOE MASON, now held one of the highest positions in the world, window washer of the Empire State Building. On our way back to M'town we were talking and didn't notice the car in front of us. We bumped into the back of it. Ginny and I got out to see what damage was done. The driver of the other car didn't seem to be mad when he got out of his car. I had to look twice; it was KENNY EADS! He asked us to take a short ride with him. He is still a bachelor, I learned. He always said he'd never get married. As we drove along we passed a huge farm. It belonged to Gordon and Donna Walker, the former DONNA FAYE PERRELL. It seemed that Donna did all the farming because her husband had a business of his own. As we went on, we passed an immense dairy farm. This belonged to PHYLLIS and Howard Peter. It was getting late so we went back to M'town. Ginny had to meet her new chemistry teacher, BILL KIRKPATRICK. Kenny dropped me at the new Schlossers' plant in town. I notice that BILL HARVEY is the manager. He sure came up in that Business. The kids were watching a game on television between Beard and Wanderville. The sports announcer was very captivating and familiar, yes, I was ROLDO R'DENOURI! He was introducing his guest for the evening, MR. RULE, a retired coach. The next day I went out to see LAURA JEAN PERRELL. She owned a big night club on the outskirts of town. I arrived just as rehearsal was starting. NEIL PERRELL, now American Idol Singer, was singing his song. After rehearsal I drove Neil back to the Motel where he was staying. The sign out front said FRIENDLY PETES. DON FETERSON met us at the gate. He is now married and has all six of his kids working for him. On my drive back to town I noticed the driver in the car next to mine. It was DONNIE EVANS. He stopped and talked to me for a second. He was home on vacation from New York where he works with Joe Mason. It seems that Donnie washes out the window brushes while Joe washes the windows. That evening we had company. SARAH NEWELL and her husband, Ralph Webb, dropped in. They ran a small sewing school which does quite well. Well, it's late so I had better go to bed. I have to go back to California tomorrow. I am leaving on a plane for Paris in a few days. I hope I will get to return in the very near future and see how things have changed. During the ride home the plot came forward to see how things were. To my surprise it was DAVID NEWHART. He's flying around Michigantown in his car sure was good practice for his career.

GANDERS UNDEFEATED IN SCHEDULE GAMES OF 1953-1954

The Ganders had a wonderful season this year! We are really proud of them because they won 22 of 24 games in the entire season. In the regular scheduled games they were undefeated. They were runner-up in the County Tourney, and in the Sectional they really gave those teams a run; however, they lost to Frankfort in the Saturday afternoon game.

We are sorry to lose seven seniors off the A team this year, and we wish the Ganders in the future years as much success as the 1954 squad has had. We also wish to extend our appreciation to Mr. Rule to the boys, and to the yell leaders.
